I like the idea of having more American voices commenting on the proceedings, both those of the Republicans and the Democrats, and if it becomes fashionable, the candidates and their campaigns. When I was young, the news never really said what the news was, it just said it was the “news”. All of it was biased and slanted. I had to find out everything I could about the news so it would be more accurate. I was born in a time when there was open competition, so that the news would be more accurate. We had a newsman from the “Unbiased, More Truthful” network which battled the “Widespread, Not Truthful” station. We had a newsman from the “Facts First” network which battled the “Trash First” station. We also had another newsman, from another network who was initially despised, for poking his head into the “official” story and saying it was “bullshit”. The lie was that he was a paid, “shill for the White House” or that he was a paid, “White House operative” or that he was a paid “COD” (Communist Dissident). He was not paid, he was a teacher and a citizen. The lies dropped like flies until it was no longer possible to lie and say things were the “news”. Today, there is no competition as there is no truth. There is no “Untruth”, there is no “nonsense”, there is no “Crap”, there is no “Bullshit”, there is no “Satire”, there is no “Speak for yourself”, there is no “Author of the Obvious”, there is no “Idiot”, there is no “Carpetbagger”, there is no “Bungler”, there is no “Uninformed, Uneducated, Unintelligent, Unqualified, Untalented, Unethical, Unprincipled, Unrighteous, Unscrupulous, Unworthy”, and there is no “Con Artist”. There is only “Craziness”. We didn’t even realize how awful things were until we had a good look at the things that were going

NEW YORK (Reuters) - The chairman of a nonprofit group that helped organize Saturday’s People’s Climate March and planks its own annual event to coincide with the United Nations Climate Action Summit in September, was arrested in New York on Friday and was charged with assaulting a police officer. Carrasco, 41, of Washington, was arrested on charges of assault and obstructing governmental administration, said Jack Donson, a spokesman for the Washington, D.C.-based Police Officers’ Union. A summons was issued and he has an appearance scheduled in a D.C. Superior Court on Monday, he said. Carrasco was the organizer of the People’s Climate March, a day of action in which more than 250 groups and millions of people turned out in more than 600 locations worldwide to call for action on climate change, protesting President Donald Trump’s withdrawal from the 2015 Paris Agreement. The group that organized the march said it did not know what Carrasco’s relation to the march was. “We were not aware of the assault,” said Christina Stephens, a spokeswoman for March4Truth, the political action committee that organized the climate march. “Carrasco was the national organizer for the march and he has done many good things for our movement. We wish him well.” The U.N. summit scheduled for Sept. 23 and 24 in New York City is meant to be a major U.N. forum on climate change, and heads of state are due to gather there for the launch of a U.N. framework for global climate action agreed by U.N. climate talks in Paris a year ago. In a statement, the Police Department said D.C. Metropolitan Police Department officers responded to a 911 call at 8:10 a.m. on Friday from a member of the public who reported an assault on West 51st Street, and when officers arrived they found Carrasco standing in the street with a second man who had sustained injuries to his face and head, and who told officers that the suspect had attacked him. “The suspects began assaulting a second victim and then a struggle ensued between the two men and officers. During this altercation, the suspect struck a police officer twice, inflicting minor injuries,” the statement said. Carrasco was found to have a loaded, 6-inch folding knife in his possession and
