36 Fragments of Midnight is a game within a game developed by Sleven, a Slovenian independent development company. You are a lone entity who just arrived to the deserted human colony where you may be staying for as long as you need to. The colonists abandoned the planet for unknown reasons, a year, 10 years, hundreds of years ago. Apparently they wanted to leave, but failed, and space monsters are now haunting their ship and have taken over your role.

The Birds of Chaos Series and Gunslinger!

The most exciting speculative fiction series of 2017 (and the first year of multi-author is it even better!!)

The first book in the Birds of Chaos series, The Un-Death is out, check it out!

Lousy, low-life ... muscle-packing stuntman, Ben Cooper, has a simple plan. Have sex with the mysterious supernatural girl he's agreed to protect. It will cost him an eye and some fingers. But he's got three days to figure out who's trying to kill him and stop them. Ben hasn't had much luck with beautiful women in the past, but there's something about the girl he's supposed to save that's got his blood boiling for something other than help. And before he can figure out what it is, they're gone. Terrorists have raided the facility where the girl is being treated. Ben and his otherworldly lover are next. And if that isn't enough, the controlling entity of the facility has gone bad and is hell-bent on killing them all. But with a flying shooting tutorial from an invisible angel, salvation is just around the corner. At least, that's what Ben's expecting ... until a shaggy-haired man with a

Note :- For Beginners who have no idea about the games of this genre. Logistics of the game :- If you don't have a puzzle piece that belongs to the construction, you can buy it for a few cents from the game shop (there are tools, brushes, paint, etc). Having opened the puzzle, adjust the desired level of difficulty. If you make a mistake, try again, simply press the "Back" key and continue making the puzzle. The games of this genre, in order to be more exciting, it is important to provide an opportunity for gameplay similar to the reality. First of all, it is necessary to find out the species of the animal. Then, there are two factors in the game - the speed of the game and the total time that the player will have to fill the puzzle. According to the game, choose a level of difficulty appropriate to your experience. Press the "Next" button, take the random seed and click on a puzzle piece. As soon as the puzzle becomes a creature, you can add new pieces to it. Puzzle pieces will appear one at a time. When the next piece appears on the screen, it will disappear. At the same time, the game will create a new puzzle of a different animal. All of the pieces for a specific level of difficulty are stored in the "Puzzle". You can see the names of your puzzles at the top right. The more puzzles you have, the faster you earn money. You can see the information about the pieces as well as the time left to solve the puzzle. You can "submit" your puzzle to an online puzzle game center. The game's end condition is to catch all pieces. Simple and easy to play! Try to guess how this wild creature will act! Controls: Use the arrow keys to move a piece on the puzzle. Use the Space key to select a piece. Look on your phone or tablet for instructions about how to play Puzzle Game 1001 - Wild Animals: here you can find games for free online, collected in this special section. You'll find the games 1001 - Wild Animals, a huge collection of games for free online, which will entertain you and stimulate your brain. What can you expect to find on this site? (FOR BETA TESTING) Free download. Bookmark/Create a link to this site! Support my work! Buy a copy of It is valid for the Basic version of ATS for Windows and Mac OS X. The Free City Bus Feature is only available for the ATS version for Windows (.Net Framework 4.0). If you already own the Original Atmosphere Transport Simulation (ATS), here's an extension for a brand new game Add-On: City Bus Simulator (Windows and Mac). After the passengers have sat down, the bus can accelerate to up to 80km/h. If the traffic is too heavy, the bus has to activate the Brake&Einstellungsmodus (the Brake&Einstellungsmodus offers more details). The bus can pass the front bus shelter. The city is a perfect representation for the Greater Region Hagen-Wuppertal: You can spend a lot of time in the bus, but all passengers and drivers live. Bus stop, rails and road signs are coming out of the ground (the existing world is still complete). First, break the brown colored road surface (masked) and move your bus around. The bus will become invisible. In the schematic view you can see how fast you drive: When we load the original terrain, you can't see the bus, but when we replace the terrain by skybox's, the bus appears. The masses (heavy objects in the bus) are in the foreground: Please exit the vehicle and move around, there are 16 additional objects which can be controlled. Let's try it again: Please exit the vehicle and move around, there are 16 additional objects which can be controlled. Let's try it again: To get inside the bus, you have to click on the trunk. OK, that was easy. Important: Activate the Xbox Gamepad, because the Sim Mode gives additional information. Nice: There's a train in the foreground; please enter it and drive inside. In the traffic simulation, your own bus is driving, but it passes him. How? Because we are just simulating, because that's not the real world. Of course this will be a possibility in the real life, as well. This

"I am your good-luck charm. Our previous adventures have seen us solve mysteries across the entire land of Arran. Yet even after all the trials we have faced together, we haven't learned a thing about the Seven, the guardians of the Minos Temple. There's no good reason for them to have come after us, but I suspect something terrible is in the works. By all means, return to the temple and learn about the Seven. Be careful, though. Their abilities may be formidable and their rituals cryptic. And they will most likely try to get rid of you when they discover that you have the ability to communicate with their great white steeds." Bandit-General: The head of the 'Bandits', the wealthy bandits who swarm the countryside and battle for the resources of the land.
